

LAXATIVE.

THE KIND YOU HAVE ALWAYS bought has borne the signature of the Western Chemical Co. of Chicago, Ill., for years. Allow no one to deceive you with counterfeits. Imitations and "just as goods" are but experiments, and endanger the health of children.

What is Laxatine?

LAXATIVE IS NOTHING BUT THE FINEST CASTOR OIL, with its objectionable taste removed by our new process. LAXATIVE is as pleasant to take as honey. Children like it. No trouble to get them to take it. It contains neither opium, morphine, nor other narcotic substances. It relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency; it assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.—The Children's Panacea—the Mothers' Friend.

THE DECREE FILED

Formal End of the Soper Litigation.

Full Account of Proceedings Briefly Noted in Last Saturday's "Advertiser."

As already stated in the Advertiser, the Soper-Waihua Company litigation was brought to a conclusion on Saturday last by a compromise between the parties, by the terms of which, Mr. Dillingham paid to Soper and Valentine the sum of $65,000 in full of all their commissions and other compensation for having placed the ten thousand shares of stock in San Francisco, which was the subject of the suit. The Waihua Agricultural Company had nothing to do with this part of the case.

In accordance with the decision of Judge Perry of the Circuit Court, a decree was filed Saturday, having the approval of all the parties, by which the above named money payment was substituted for that portion of the decision of the Court which directed the delivery of certain paid-up shares of the company by Dillingham to Soper and Valentine, and also in lieu of the money judgment by Judge Perry's decision awarded to Soper and Valentine.

The decree also directs the Waihua Agricultural Company to issue to the San Francisco subscribers—to whom Soper sold the stock—the entire ten thousand shares of stock subscribed by them. The company will now issue to the Honolulu subscribers the ten thousand shares increase of capital which was argued upon by the meeting of stockholders held about a month ago.

This settlement brings to an end one of the most complicated cases ever before the courts of Hawaii. The amount of money involved and the length of the trial are record breakers in Hawaii. The market value of the stock directly involved was about $1,500,000, and the time occupied in the trial was about six weeks.

By reason of the uncertainty growing out of the litigation the stock of the company has recently declined heavily, although it is still selling at approximately $25 above the par value. With the uncertainties caused by the litigation removed there is no reason why the stock should not again rise to its former value and even higher.

The following is a full copy of the decree filed Saturday:

"The above entitled cause having come on to be heard on bill, answer and proofs, and the Court having heard and considered the evidence and the arguments of counsel on behalf of the complainants and of the respondents, and being of opinion that the respondent Benjamin F. Dillingham now holds the legal title to the ten thousand shares of the capital stock of the Waihua Agricultural Company, Limited, named in the complainant's bill of complaint, and that said Dillingham should be decreed to hold said shares as trustee for the benefit of the persons to whom said complainants sold said shares, and that the complainants are entitled to commissions as agreed upon by the parties for their services in obtaining purchasers for said shares.

"It is ordered, adjudged and decreed that said Benjamin F. Dillingham do stand charged in respect to said ten thousand shares of the capital stock of the Waihua Agricultural Company, Limited, as a trustee for the benefit of the persons to whom said shares were sold by said complainants; and that the respondent, the Waihua Agricultural Company, Limited, by its appropriate officers shall issue certificates for said ten thousand shares to the persons to whom said shares were sold by said complainants or to their order or assigns.

"And it having been made to appear to the Court that said complainants are willing to accept from said respondent, Benjamin F. Dillingham, the sum of sixty-five thousand dollars in full of all claims and demands for commissions and services in respect to the sale of said shares.

"It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that said respondent Benjamin F. Dillingham do pay to said complainants the sum of sixty-five thousand dollars and costs of court taxed at $239.50."

A Korean Gold-Miner

Leigh Hunt of Portland, Oregon, representing the syndicate which controls the mining interests of Korea, was a through passenger on the Coptic. The syndicate is understood to control almost every mining concession in Korea, besides having large interests in China, thus giving it the greatest scope in the Orient. Mr. Hunt is well known in the Sound country where he was formerly engaged in newspaper work; meeting with business reverses he was obliged to begin over again, and proceeding to Korea, he was fortunate in securing the valuable concessions which have practically given him the title of "The Gold King."

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The President today issued the following proclamation:

"National custom, dear to the hearts of the people, calls for the setting apart of one day in each year for special thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of the preceding year. This honored observance acquires with time a tenderer significance. It enriches domestic life. It summons under the family roof the absent children to glad reunion with those they love.

"Seldom has this Nation had greater cause for profound thanksgiving. No great pestilence has invaded our shores. Liberal employment waits upon labor. Abundant crops have rewarded the efforts of the husbandman. Increased comforts have come to the home. The national finances have been strengthened and public credit has been sustained and made firmer. In all branches of industry and trade there has been an unequalled degree of prosperity, while there has been a steady gain in the moral and educational growth of our national character.

"Churches and schools have flourished. American patriotism has been exalted. Those engaged in maintaining the honor of the flag with such signal success have been in a large degree spared from disaster and disease. An honorable peace has been ratified with a foreign nation with which we were at war and we are now at friendly relations with every power on earth.

"The trust which we have assumed for the benefit of the people of Cuba has faithfully advanced. There is marked progress toward the restoration of healthy industrial conditions and under wise sanitary regulations the island has enjoyed unusual exemption from the scourge of fever. The hurricane which swept over our new possession of Porto Rico, destroying the homes and property of the inhabitants, called forth the instant sympathy of the people of the United States, who were swift to respond with generous aid to the sufferers. While the insurrection still continues in the Island of Luzon, business is resuming its activity, and confidence in the good purposes of the United States is being rapidly established throughout the archipelago.

"For these reasons and countless others, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do name Thursday, the 30th day of November next, as a day of general thanksgiving and prayer, to be observed as such by all our people on this continent and in our newly acquired islands, as well as by those who may be at sea or sojourning in foreign lands, and I advise that on this day religious exercises shall be conducted in the churches or meeting places of all denominations in order that in the social features of the day its real significance may not be lost sight of, but fervent prayers may be offered to the Most High for a continuance of Divine guidance, without which man's efforts are vain, and for Divine consolation to those whose kindred and friends have sacrificed their lives for our country.

"I recommend also, that on this day, so far as may be found practicable, labor shall cease from its accustomed toil and charity abound toward the sick, the needy and the poor.

"In witness whereof, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"WILLIAM MCKINLEY."
